

The nomination period for the ASC X12 Edward A. Guilbert and Earl J. Bass awards for 2013 has been EXTENDED until August 1, 2013 . These awards will be presented at the September 23, 2013 ASC X12 General Session as part of the Fall Standing Meeting in Jacksonville, FL. Submit nominations online for the Guilbert Award at <http://www.x12.org/awards/guilbert/> and for the Bass Award at <http://www.x12.org/awards/bass/> .

Candidates for the Edward A. Guilbert lifetime achievement award must meet the following criteria. This award is based on long-term actions and activities.

1. Be an ASC X12 individual member or an employee of an ASC X12 organizational member or an employee of an ASC X12 stakeholder.
2. Exhibit ongoing and continuous outstanding leadership as a proponent of ASC X12 Standards over a number of years.
3. Be a long-term participant in the development and implementation of ASC X12 Standards.

Candidates for the Earl J. Bass award must meet the following criteria. This award is based on actions and activities over the previous 12 to 18 months.

1. Be an ASC X12 individual member or an employee of an ASC X12 organizational member or an employee of an ASC X12 stakeholder.
2. Exhibit leadership as a proponent of ASC X12 Standards.
3. Exhibit clear expertise in the implementation and use of ASC X12 Standards.

Questions may be submitted to Info@ascx12.org.