Should a company join within 30 days of attending the ASC X12 meeting, the fees will be applied to the first year of membership.

The ASC X12 room block is sold out at the Wyndham. Alternative hotels nearby include:

Crowne Plaza Universal (407-355-0550)
Doubletree Castle Hotel (407-345-1511)
Courtyard By Marriott (407-351-2244)

Our Monday General Session speaker will be Paul Snaith, Manager, Treasury Asset & Liability Operations, The World Bank.

Social Events planned for the week include.

- Monday evening, June 4, will be the Opening Welcome Reception. Weather permitting, this event will be held in the Pavilion by the West Pool. This is a great opportunity to get to know your fellow X12ers and have a great networking experience.
- Wednesday evening, June 6, plan to join other X12ers at Howl at the Moon, a highly successful dueling piano concept located a few blocks away. It's a singing, clapping, stomping, dance on the piano rock 'n' roll dueling piano show.

May 3, 2007

It's part piano bar and part sing-along all centered around audience participation. Cover charge of $10.00 is payable at the door, but we need a count of those interested. Reserve a spot for yourself by e-mailing Diane Huber at dhuber@disa.org. For more information, visit www.howlatthemoon.com.

A full day of introductory CICA training will be held Sunday, June 3, from 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. in the Oleander A Room. This session will teach you how to design and build a CICA document from start to finish. It is available free of charge to all X12 meeting attendees and all are welcome to attend. Please RSVP (to ensure our room size is appropriate) by emailing jobrien@disa.org. A full course outline will be available online at the X12 web site in the coming week.

Nominations Now Being Accepted for the 16th Annual Edward A. Guilbert e-Business Award

The Data Interchange Standards Association (DISA), a not-for-profit organization that supports the development of cross-industry electronic business interchange standards, seeks nominations for its 2007 Edward A. Guilbert e-Business Professional Award. The award recognizes significant career contributions in e-business message development. Nominees will be evaluated on the scope, duration, quality and impact of service toward the advancement of e-business and EDI standards. Award nominations are due June 11, 2007. For details about the award and the nomination process, go to: <http://www.disa.org/guilbert.cfm>.
